History

Château Bellegrave is located South of the commune of Pauillac, between chateaus Latour, Pichon-Longueville, and Lynch-Bages. Ancient property of Armand Roux, the domain was purchased in 1901, by H. Van-Der-Voort, negociant in San-Francisco.

In 1997, J.P Meffre, producer in Saint-Julien-Beychevelle, became the new owner of the property. Today, the grand-sons Ludovic and Julien are managing this classic estate.
